

I am opposed to broadband over powerline. All of the technical data that I have read indicates that there will be severe interference to users on those frequencies that this service will operate on. Also, the test areas where BPL is implemented has in fact demonstrated interference.